Plans for A New Building Received with Enthusiasm

Soon congregants will receive a detailed brochure, beautifully illustrated, listing the many improved facilities throughout the existing and the proposed new building. The plan shows the many improvements planned for the lobby, the lower level and the five floors including the roof—all designed to meet the needs of members, and their children and grandchildren.

Mr. George M. Shapiro, chairman of the Board of Trustees, has said: "We have excellent architectural plans for an efficient and attractive new building. All that is needed is your financial support . . . I ask each and every one of you to send pledges for Phase 2 of the Building Construction Fund Campaign as promptly as possible . . . You can light a candle which will insure the strength and survival of this institution."

In commenting on the plans, Rabbi Judah Nadich said, "The opportunity usually comes no more than once in a lifetime to memorialize a loved one or to honor someone close to you by associating the name with a new synagogue building. The opportunity is even more precious when the new synagogue building will house children studying the Jewish heritage. The new brochure is most clear in its description of the various classrooms, learning areas and other facilities that can be forever associated with the name of someone dear."

Mrs. Rahel Bloch, principal of the Elementary Department of our Religious School, Mrs. Rivka Singer, director of the Early Childhood Center and Mr. Peter Geffen, principal of the High School Department, are most enthusiastic about the plans, best summed up in Mr. Geffen's words: "The plans offer the most exciting possibilities for the future education of our Jewish youth".

The new Park Avenue Synagogue with its magnificent main entrance lobby with the reception desk at the center; the Hall of Worship in the lower level seating 1000 members which can be quickly converted into a beautiful banquet hall—all are exciting new additions. The nursery classrooms with lavatories, sink, work-top alcove and storage area will be bright and spacious, flooded with natural light as will the classrooms on the second, third, fourth and fifth floors. The Library Learning Center with its individual study carrels; its music and audio/visual libraries, video workshop and a new youth lounge will house over 15,000 volumes on its shelves and seat 150 students.

To make this magnificent building a reality, we must reach our financial goal this year. Please send your pledge payable over a four year period today!

Parents Association Plans Welcome Reception For Parents and Faculty

The Parents Association will welcome parents, grandparents and the members of the Religious School faculty at a reception on Thursday, October 28, at 8:15 p.m. in the Lemberg Auditorium. This will be a fine opportunity for parents whose children have entered the Religious School for the first time to meet other parents and for parents of long standing to renew friendships after the summer months. The meeting will be an informal get-together and Mrs. Milton Gelman, president of the Parents Association, in behalf of the Executive Board and the general membership, stresses the fact that all meetings during the year will be informal and warm in the spirit of friendship and congeniality.

Mrs. Doris Finkel and Mrs. Carolyn Gould are co-chairmen of the meeting which will close with a coffee and social hour. The date—Thursday evening, October 28.

Shemini Atzeret

Shemini Atzeret which occurs on the eighth day of the festival of Sukkot falls on 22 Tishri and is observed this year on Saturday, October 16. A more serious mood prevails in the sanctuary, partly because the Yizkor memorial service takes place before Musaf. An important feature of the morning service is the prayer for rain so that there may be an abundance of crops during the coming year. Man thus expresses his dependence upon nature and his awareness of God's daily gifts.

Yizkor Memorial Prayers will be recited on Shemini Atzeret
Saturday, October 16

Those who wish to memorialize any family member are asked to return the enclosed card to reach the synagogue no later than Tuesday, October 12.

Cards cannot be accepted at the service.

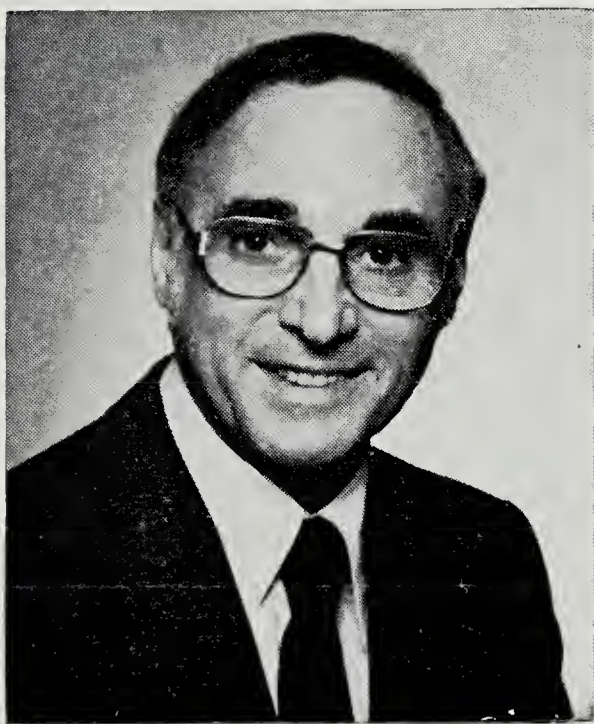

A Lulav and An Etrog For Sukkot

Each year during the Sukkot festival the lulavim (palm branches) and etrogim (citrons) purchased by the synagogue are circulated among worshippers for their own individual recital of the requisite prayers. During the hakafot, the procession, they are allotted to certain individuals for the honor of marching in the procession with them.

Congregants who would like to purchase a set of lulav and etrog for themselves for the coming Sukkot holiday may do so by phoning the Rabbi's secretary, Mrs. Norma Daub, EN 9-2600 and the order will be placed for them.

We are pleased to add Judge and Mrs. Louis I. Kaplan, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Kamber, Dr. and Mrs. Sigmund Siegel and Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Yuder, to the Roll of Honor of those who have contributed $1000 or more to the Building Construction Fund. Park Avenue Synagogue is indeed grateful for their generous gifts.

Those Whom We Honor at Simhat Torah

Ira Lee
Hatan Torah

IRA LEE, a member of the Board of Trustees, who has been a member of Park Avenue Synagogue for over twenty-five years, has been active in the congregation and has served on many committees—recently as co-chairman of the Jan Peerce concert in honor of Hazzan David J. Putterman and as a member of the Search Committee for a new cantor.

He attended Staunton Military Academy, Columbia Grammar School and Syracuse University. Mr. Lee, who has his own real estate business, has won the respect of his business colleagues.

As chairman of the Ritual Committee, he and his committee initiated a review of the prayer books and the conduct of services on Friday nights, Shabbat mornings and on the High Holy Days.

He has served as the co-chairman of the Planning Committee, the House Committee and as a member of the Adult Education and Membership Committees of the synagogue. Currently he is one of the vice chairmen of the Building Fund Committee. The Daily Minyan project has benefited under Mr. Lee's co-chairmanship and his regular attendance since its inception has been a mainstay in its continuance. After serving as secretary, program chairman and vice president of the Men's Club, he was

She has been particularly active in Sisterhood. A member of Sisterhood's Executive Board, she has served as vice president, corresponding secretary, co-chairman and chairman of several of Sisterhood's annual luncheons and as membership chairman and raffle chairman for Sisterhood's bazaars. For four years she has been chairman of the Simhat Torah receptions, and the beautiful buffet tables have won the praise of all who attended.

For thirteen years she has served as co-chairman of the Oneg Shabbat receptions and teas held after services. A gracious hostess, she has chaired many kiddushim after services including the elaborate kiddush in honor of new members and recently the reception in honor of Hazzan David J. Putterman following the Jan Peerce concert.

Her interest in Jewish affairs and philanthropies is of long standing. Before joining our synagogue, she and her husband were members of the Flatbush

Arthur Fine
Hatan Bereshit

ARTHUR FINE, a member of the Board of Trustees, currently a vice president of Park Avenue Synagogue and chairman of its important Finance Committee, has given unselfishly of himself in a modest, unassuming manner since he and his wife, Sylvia, joined our synagogue in 1964.

A graduate of New York University School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance, Mr. Fine serves as treasurer and a director of M. Fine and Sons Mfg. Co., manufacturers of men's work clothes since 1890. Always interested in Jewish affairs, he was chairman of the Building Fund and president of Temple Israel of Great Neck, a leading Conservative synagogue in Long Island before moving to their present home in New York.

Mr. Fine has been a member of many committees in the synagogue to all of which he has given his guidance and wise counsel. A vice chairman of the Building Fund Committee, he has devoted hours of work to laying out plans for the permanent recognition of memorials, classrooms, studies, and offices which, through their generosity, congregants will have made available when the new Park Avenue Synagogue will be built. In addition to his generous support of the Building Fund, Mr. Fine is interested elected president. In 1970 he was awarded The Man of the Year Award and was again honored with this coveted award in 1975—the only member of the Men's Club to receive this honor twice. During his term of office, he was successful in encouraging many of our younger men to become active in the Men's Club and in the synagogue activities. At present he is a vice president of the Metropolitan Region of the National Federation of Men's Club. Under his presidency, the Men's Club received a prize given by the Metropolitan Region for its superior youth programs.

Mr. Lee is the proud father of two sons, Lawrence, now in his junior year at Cornell University where he is in the Hotel Management School, and Robert, who will enter the tenth form at Birch Wathen this fall.

For his superior contributions to Park Avenue Synagogue with particular recognition of his leadership in the Men's Club, the Ritual Committee and the daily Minyan and his dedication to Jewish life, Ira Lee has been named Hatan Torah for Simhat Torah 5737.

Jewish Center, Brooklyn. The Berger Room, the school office of the Center, was their gift in memory of their parents.

Among the philanthropies in which Mrs. Berger is interested are The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, the Torah Fund and Women's League. She and her husband are charter members of B'nai Brith, Prospect Park Chapter, Brooklyn.

Her husband, Herman, and their sons, Leonard and Joel, and their families have every reason to be proud of her as does Park Avenue Synagogue.

For her dedicated service to the synagogue and with particular recognition of her contribution of personal service to the enhancement of human relations among worshippers, Frances Berger has been chosen Kalah Mafteret for Simhat Torah 5737.

in a wide range of philanthropies. He is a Patron of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America and is a dedicated member of our synagogue Seminary Committee. Earlier he was a founder of the Great Neck Friends of the Seminary and served as its chairman. United Jewish Appeal and the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies are only a few of his many interests.

His wife, Sylvia, shares her husband's interest in congregational and communal service. A graduate of New York University's Washington Square College, she is a member of Sisterhood's Executive Board and an active worker in synagogue and philanthropic affairs. The Fines have three children, Lucy, Joseph, and Alice and five grandchildren of whom they speak with pride and to whom they are devoted.

For his many years of service in many areas of Jewish and communal life, and, with particular recognition of his leadership in the financial matters of our synagogue, Mr. Fine has been named Hatan Bereshit for Simhat Torah, 5737.

THE FESTIVAL OF SUKKOT

The Sukkah is designed to teach man to put his trust in heaven, for as he sees the universe which God created, he is inspired to trust in Him.

—Menorat Ha-maor, Chapter 3

The Festival of Sukkot, the Season of our Rejoicing, zeman simhatenu, is the Festival of Thanksgiving marking the ingathering of summer crops and fruits and the close of the agricultural year. The principal features of the holiday, observed for eight days, are the citron, the palm branch, the willow, the myrtle and the Sukkah. According to tradition, the Sukkah must be covered with foliage but with enough space between the greens so that the stars can be seen.

The other symbol of Sukkot is the cluster of plants — the lulav, etrog, myrtle and willow with which the worshipper rejoices before God as he chants praises of gratitude. One interpretation of the "Sukkot bouquet" is that the lulav, the palm branch, is symbolic of the spine. As it stands tall and firm, so man is urged to stand morally straight and intellectually firm. The badas, the myrtle, figurative of the human eye, symbolizes a pattern of conduct beheld by the human eye that is certain in responsibility. The aravah, the willow, representing the mouth, reminds man that the words of his mouth must be gracious and kind. Symbolic of the heart is the etrog, the citron, teaching man to be generous to all. When these species are used during the hallel and hakafot, the processions, we are told that the lulav atones for pride, the etrog for the sins of the heart, the aravah for unholy speech and the badas for the lust of the eye.

The dominant note of the festival is one of thanksgiving and joy. The Biblical commandment enjoins that "thou shalt be altogether joyful" (Deut. 16:15).

Kiddush in the Sukkah

This year Sukkot begins on Friday evening, October 8th, with services at 5:45 p.m. and continues on Saturday and Sunday, October 9th and 10th with services at 9:30 a.m. Congregants, their families and friends are invited to attend the services and afterwards to visit the Sukkah on the roof of the Milton Steinberg House.

John G. Stoessinger, Professor of Political Science Speaker at Joint Evening Meeting of Sisterhood and Mr. and Mrs. Club

At the first open meeting of the season, Tuesday evening, October 19, Sisterhood will join with the Mr. and Mrs. Club in presenting Dr. John G. Stoessinger, professor of Political Science at the City University of New York at Hunter College and special consultant to the United Nations. Dr. Stoessinger will speak on "The Middle East after the Election: Breakdown or Breakthrough?" The meeting to which all congregants, their families and friends are invited will take place at 8:15 p.m. in the Lemberg Auditorium.

John G. Stoessinger fled from Nazi-occupied Austria at the age of eleven to Czechoslovakia. Three years later, he had fled again via Siberia to China where he lived for seven years. In Shanghai, he served the International Refugee Organization.

Dr. Stoessinger came to the United States in 1947, received his B.A. degree from Grinnell College in 1950 and then went to Harvard where he earned his Ph.D. degree in 1954. He entered the teaching field immediately and has taught at Harvard, Wellesley, M.I.T., and Columbia. In 1969, he led the International Seminar on International Relations at Harvard University, and in 1970 he received an Honorary Degree of

Dr. John Stoessinger

Doctor of Laws from Grinnell College, Iowa. From 1967 to 1974 he served as Acting Director of the Political Affairs Division at the United Nations. He is now professor of Political Science at the City University of New York.

Dr. Stoessinger is the author of The Might of Nations: World Politics in Our Time (Random House, 1962), which was awarded the Bancroft Prize by Columbia University in 1963 as the best book in international relations published in 1962. A second edition was published in 1965, a third in 1969, a fourth in 1973 and the fifth edition in 1976. He has also authored The Refugee and the World Community (1956), Financing the United Nations System for the Brookings Institution (1964), Power and Order (1964), and The United Nations and the Superpowers (1965, 1970 and 1973). He served as Book Review Editor of Foreign Affairs for five years and is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.

A recent book by Dr. Stoessinger, Nations in Darkness: China, Russia and America, was chosen by the Book Find Club as its February 1972 selection. His latest book, published in 1974, is entitled Why Nations Go to War.

Dr. Stoessinger's most recent book, Henry Kissinger: The Anguish of Power was published by W. W. Norton in 1976.

Social Hour to Follow

Following the question and answer period, there will be a social hour during which refreshments will be served. Mrs. Charles Beller, chairman of Sisterhood's Program Committee, and Mrs. Murray Rothenberg, chairman of the day, are in charge of the plans for the evening.

Building Fund Campaign

The new building with its many advantages will insure a fine religious education for our children and grandchildren in adequate classroom space now and in years to come.

Your contribution will be used solely for the purpose of constructing, furnishing and equipping a new building for Park Avenue Synagogue at the corner of 87 Street and Madison Avenue.

Rabbi Nadich has called the drive "an appeal to conscience" for those who are concerned with the preservation of Judaism and has asked every congregant who can do so to send a pledge for a generous contribution.

Please send your pledge to Rabbi Judah Nadich at the synagogue office, 50 East 87 Street, New York, N. Y. 10028.
